- (2) The General Meeting shall be called by the Executive Board or, in statutory cases, by the Supervisory Board.
- (3) The General Meeting shall be called at least thirty days prior to the date by which the shareholders must register for participation in the General Meeting. The day the General Meeting is called shall not be included in the calculation of this period.

- (4) The General Meeting, at which the members of the Executive and Supervisory Boards shall be released from the responsibility for management during the preceding year, a vote taken on the appropriation of the annual net profit and an auditor elected (ordinary General Meeting), shall be called within the first eight months of a given financial year.(5)

General Meeting Attendance and Exertion of Voting Rights

- (1) Only those shareholders who register for participation in the General Meeting shall be entitled to attend the General Meeting and exercise their right to vote. Registration requires text form and must be composed in German or English. The registration must be received by the Company at least six days prior to the General Meeting at the address communicated in the notice of the General Meeting. The day of the General Meeting and the day of receipt shall not be included in the calculation of this period.
- (2) Shareholders must also provide proof of their entitlement to attend the Annual General Meeting and exercise their voting rights. The proof of entitlement shall take the form of a separate proof of shareholdings in written form in German or English to be issued by the depository institution; proof in accordance with Section 67c (3) AktG shall be sufficient in all cases. The proof must refer to the beginning of the twenty-first day prior to the Annual General Meeting and be provided to the company at least six days before the meeting. The date of the meeting and the date of receipt should not be counted.
- (3) The right to vote may be exercised by a proxy. The power of proxy, its revocation and the proof of proxy to the company require text form. The notice of the General Meeting may provide for relaxation of the text form. Section 135 AktG shall remain unaffected. If a shareholder grants the power of proxy to more than one person, the Company may refuse one or several of them.
- (4) The Executive Board is authorised to make provisions to enable shareholders to participate in the Annual General Meeting even without being physically present and without a proxy and to enable them to exercise all or some of their rights wholly or partly by electronic means (online participation). The Executive Board is also authorised to make provisions on the scope and procedure of online participation and the exercise of rights under Article 1. Any enabling of such and the associated provisions shall be announced when the Annual General Meeting is convened.
- (5) The Executive Board is authorised to make provisions to allow shareholders to cast their votes without participating in the Annual General Meeting either in writing or electronically (postal vote). The Executive Board is also authorised to make provisions on the relevant procedure. Any enabling of postal voting and the associated regulations shall be announced when the Annual General Meeting is convened.
- (6) The full Annual General Meeting or parts thereof may be broadcast with audio and video by order of the Executive Board. It may also be broadcast in a form to which the general public has unrestricted access. The order for the broadcast, its scope and its form shall be announced when the meeting is convened.

Chairman Presiding at General Meeting

- (1) The chairman of or a designated member of the Supervisory Board shall chair the General Meeting.

- (2) The chairman shall be in charge of the meeting, determining the order in which agenda items shall be discussed and the type and order of voting. The chairman is authorised to limit the amount of time available to each shareholder for asking questions or discussing agenda items. Further and in particular, at the beginning of the General Meeting the chairman is authorised to set a limited time frame for the entire duration of the General Meeting, for an individual agenda item or for an individual speaker.
- (3) The General Meeting may be recorded audio-visually in whole or in part. Details concerning an audio or video transmission shall be made known in the invitation to the General Meeting.

Adoption of a Resolution at the General Meeting

- (1) One share equals one vote at the General Meeting.
- (2) Unless otherwise mandatory by law or the articles of association, all resolutions at the General Meeting shall be adopted on the basis of majority vote. Abstention from voting does not count as a vote.

VI. Annual Financial Statements and Appropriation of Profit

Annual Financial Statements

- (1) During the first three months of a given fiscal year the Executive Board shall compile the annual financial statements (annual balance sheet, income statement and notes to the financial statements) and the management report for the preceding year. Following audit of the annual financial statements by the designated auditor, these shall be submitted to the Supervisory Board together with the proposal for appropriation of the net profit and the auditor's report without delay.
- (2) The Supervisory Board shall check the annual financial statements and the proposal for appropriation of the net profit and submit a written report on its results at the General Meeting. The Supervisory Board's report shall be forwarded to the Executive Board no later than one month following its receipt of the documents.
- (3) Approval of the annual financial statements by the Supervisory Board is final.
- (4) Following receipt of the report by the Supervisory Board the Executive Board shall call the ordinary General Meeting without delay for acceptance of the approved and recognised annual financial statements.
- (5) The annual financial statements, the management report, the report of the Supervisory Board and the Executive Board's proposal for appropriation of retained earnings shall be made available from the time the Annual General Meeting is called.

Reserves

- (1) Following confirmed approval of the annual financial statements by the Executive and Supervisory Boards, both boards may transfer up to one half of the net profit to revenue reserves.

- (2) Prior to calculating the share of the net profit to be transferred to revenue reserves pursuant to Article (1) allocations to the statutory reserve and loss carried forward shall be deducted.

Appropriation of Net Profit

- (1) The appropriation of the net profit calculated on the basis of the annual financial statements shall be decided at the General Meeting.
- (2) In the event of a resolution ordering the increase of capital stock, the distribution of profits on increased capital stock may deviate from Paragraph 60, Article 2, Section 3 of the German Stock Corporation Act (AktG).
- (3) The Executive Board is authorised under Section 59 AktG, after the end of the financial year and with the Supervisory Board's consent, to pay shareholders an advance on anticipated retained earnings.

Expenses Incurred for Change of Legal Status or Company Formation

- (1) By virtue of transformation of the legal status of the current legal owner, the OVB Allfinanzvermittlungs GmbH & Co. KG, No. HRA 7962 in the Commercial Register of the District Court of Cologne, pursuant to Paragraphs 190 et seq. of the Reorganisation of Companies Act (UmwG), the capital stock of the Company totalling EUR 10,100,000.00 was rendered.
- (2) Court and notary expenses connected with transformation of the legal status and registration in the Commercial Register as well as costs incurred for publication of said transformation and other legal and/or tax accountant costs shall be borne by the Company up to a total of EUR 50,000.00.
