

Frank Burow

Dipl.-Kfm., Certified Public Accountant

Chief Financial Officer of OVV Holding AG (CFO), Executive Board member since 2021

Responsible for Group accounting, Risk Management, Compliance, Controlling, Legal, Taxes, Data Protection, Anti-money laundering

Born in 1972

Frank Burow has been a member of the Executive Board for OVV Holding AG since January 2021. He is in charge of the Finance division, and is Deputy Chairman of the OVV relief organisation. As Executive Manager of Group parent OVV Holding AG, he was previously the Head of Group Accounting & Controlling for Europe. He was also in charge of risk management for the OVV Group as Central Risk Manager.

Burow joined OVV as an external consultant in 1999 and eventually became Director of Group Accounting and Controlling. He was involved in the spin-off of OVV Holding AG from OVV Vermögensberatung AG in 2001 and was project manager for the implementation of IFRS Group accounting ahead of the company IPO in 2006. In 2010, he became Head of Group Accounting and Controlling at OVV Holding AG as an authorised signatory. In 2014 he was appointed Executive Manager of OVV Holding AG. In 2017 he was appointed the CFO/COO of OVV Vermögensberatung AG.

Burow completed his business administration studies at the University of Regensburg with a focus on group accounting under German and international law, commercial taxation and logistics in 1999. In tandem with his career, in 2002 he passed the Certified Public Accountant (CPA) exam at the University of Illinois at Urbana-Champaign and took part in not only the standard continuing professional education courses, but also the executive MBA program of ESMT (European School of Management and Technology).

He has worked for Oppenhoff & Rädler Linklaters & Alliance in Cologne, Nörr Stiefenhofer Lutz in Munich, American Express Tax & Business Services in Chicago and DHPG Dr. Harzem & Partner KG, Wirtschaftsprüfungsgesellschaft, Steuerberatungsgesellschaft in Bonn.